The Midterm is Thur 5/8 (Week 6)
The Midterm is a Sakai Exam, Thur 5/8 (Week 6). Here’s How it Works:

Read the Policy on Missed Exams

On-time arrival. Don’t be late.

Bring your UO Photo ID.

The exam is "closed-book" but you may bring one 8.5" x 11" sheet of notes as a reference during the exam.

The only window that may be open on your computer is your browser. No other windows, tabs or apps may be open, just the exam.
What the Midterm Exam Will Cover (Thu. 5/8)

- Chapters 1-5, Learning Web App Development.
- Projects 1, 2.
- Evernotes for weeks 1-5.

Exam Format

The midterm is a timed, proctored Sakai exam, consisting of 30 5-pt. questions. Best possible score: 150/150.

The questions will be all T/F and Multiple Choice.

The midterm is "closed-book" but you may bring one 8.5" x 11" page of notes to use as a reference during the exam.

How should you study for the exam?

- Read the book. The book is your friend, and exam questions will be taken mainly from material in the textbook.
- Know the answers to the practice quizzes (in the Exams/Review folder in Sakai)
- Do a good job on the projects-- that will also prepare you for the exam.
