The Midterm is Tue Aug 5
The Midterm is a Blackboard Exam, 2pm Tue Aug 5. Here's How it Works:

Read the Policy on Missed Exams

On-time arrival. Don’t be late.

Bring your UO Photo ID. No ID/No Exam, so bring your ID.

The exam is "closed-book" but you may bring one 8.5” x 11” sheet of notes as a reference during the exam.

The only window that may be open on your computer is your browser. No other windows, tabs or apps may be open, just the exam.
What the Midterm Exam Will Cover

• Chapters 1-4, and pp. 149-153 of Ch. 5, Learning Web App Development.
• All Required Readings for weeks 1-2 on the 281 Schedule
• All Examples from Class for weeks 1-2 on the 281 Schedule
• Projects 1, 2.

Exam Format

The midterm is a timed, proctored Blackboard exam, consisting of 30 5-pt. questions, plus two XC questions. Best possible score: 160/150.

The questions will be all T/F and Multiple Choice.

How should you study for the exam?

• Read the book. The book is your friend, and exam questions will be taken mainly from material in the textbook.
• Know the answers to the practice quizzes (in the Exams/Review folder in Blackboard)
• Do a good job on the projects-- that will also prepare you for the exam.

The midterm is "closed-book" but you may bring one 8.5" x 11" page of notes to use as a reference during the exam.
