UIAccessibility

- Protocol that is utilized by UIView to provide information to the accessibility systems on iOS
- Similar functionality exists for OS X
- Configure traits for a view (button, static text, etc)
- Configure accessibility labels and hints that are used by accessibility systems to help disabled users use the app
- Configure accessibility identifier to allow for identifying parts of the view (useful for UI tests)
Documentation

“Accessibility Programming Guide for iOS”
“Verifying App Accessibility on iOS”
“NSObject(UIAccessibility)”