Remarks

It is very useful to practice formulating formal proofs of the following two statements.

- The loop invariant of the binary search. Namely, the key stays in the range between low and high or does not exist.
- For any binary tree, the inorder traversal of the tree is nondecreasing if and only if the tree is a binary search tree.

---

Footnote: Contents will appear in homework and exams.